

2006 AWPA Fall Technical Meetings

Any person interested in wood preservation standards is invited to attend the American Wood-Preservers' Association's 2006 AWPA Fall Technical Committee Meetings, September 17-21, 2006, at the Hyatt Regency Crown Center in Kansas City, Missouri, USA. Technical Committee meetings are open to all persons, whether or not they are AWPA members; however, meeting registration is required.

Early registration is open through August 12 at a discounted rate of $95. Pre-registration at the regular rate of $120 closes on September 2. After then, please bring your payment and the completed registration form to the AWPA Registration Desk upon arrival.

Watch the AWPA website for updated information on the 2006 AWPA Fall Technical Meetings at www.awpa.com/meetings/technical/kc.asp.

Proposals to be considered and meeting agendas will be posted to the appropriate committee page in the members' section of the AWPA website as they are received.

Proposals for new standards or revision, reaffirmation or deletion of existing standards must be received at least 45 days prior to the commencement of the meeting of the subcommittee with jurisdiction over the standard. All comments or suggested modifications to proposals shall be sent to the proponent at least 20 days prior to the commencement of the meeting.
